

Wellington Free Ambulance Reportable Events: April – June 2023

Two SAC 1 events have been reported this quarter and are currently under review:

1. Clinical Process

Summary:

Review of clinical process while attending an acute emergency.

This review is underway and there are no findings or actions to report at this time

2. Delay in Response

Summary:

Delayed response to a patient requiring urgent response. The patient was subsequently found to be deceased.

This review is underway and there are no findings or actions to report at this time